OCTOBER

Hear ye . . . Hear ye . . . as of September 22nd it is now officially Fall . . . sorry, don't blame the messenger. Just stating facts. Now is the time to take out our cardigan sweaters and light jackets / at least for now.

This month we will meet for lunch at JoJo Apples in Point Lookout. I have been here multiple times. Sometimes with TCLI and times not. The one consistency is that I have never been disappointed when I go there. Very much looking forward to October 26th. Would be great if more of you come join us. What you say? Let Brian know you will be joining us.

Everyone keeps asking about TCI 2025 CONVENTION. Will there be one? If yes . . . where? What I can say is that there is definitely something in the works. Can't say anything yet but looks very promising. Will keep you posted

We are always looking for new restaurants and/or new places to share with our Tall Friends. Have an idea? Let me know.

Getting my appetite ready for JoJo Apples. . . . Hope to see you there

DOX – Island Park

Back in June, TCLI had a wonderful lunch at Outback Steakhouse in Island Park. Carol mentioned the nearby restaurant Dox as a future venue. So, we paid a quick visit to Dox. Great vibe and live music. The place was packed. Verdict: wait till after Labor Day weekend.

Thus, we returned to Dox on September 14th. I have learned that timing is important. So, we arrived at 1 pm. Plenty of parking. Plenty of seating. We decided to eat indoors and not on the outdoor patio; the sun was too strong.

Dox overlooks Shell Harbor. No surprise that the menu is heavy on seafood items. Yours truly is a landlubber, but I always find something. The Dox burger, and cold beer 🍺 on tap, saved the day for me. I heard not one complaint about the food from others. It was good to see Peter again. `

I'll say it again: Timing is important. Since we arrived early and the place wasn't packed, our server was willing to do separate checks. Sure enough, Dox was getting full when we were ready to leave. The entertainer just arrived, and the atmosphere continued to be festive.

I can honestly say TCLI had a great time at Dox. And we are eager to go back to Jo Jo Apples in Point Lookout for our October lunch. It should be a fun time.
